IMPORTANT ACTS OF THE LATE LEGISLATURE.

AN ACT TO ABOLISH THE OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF COMMON SCHOOLS, TREASURER OF THE LITERARY FUND, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the offices of Superintendent of Common Schools for the State, and Treasurer of the Literary Fund, be, and the same are hereby abolished.

SECTION 2. Be it further enacted, That all money, stocks, bonds, and funds of the Literary Fund, shall be deposited in the Public Treasury, and be kept distinct and apart from all other public funds, subject to the orders of the President and Directors of said Literary Fund, and shall be paid out and delivered by the Treasurer of the State to the order of the board, certified and subscribed by the Secretary and countersigned by the President.

SECTION 3. Be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors shall have power to loan the Public Treasurer, for the use of the State, any portion of said funds or any dividends or profits thereof which may accrue; and the Public Treasurer shall be accountable therefor as for other public funds.

SECTION 4. Be it further enacted, That in addition to the power heretofore conferred on said President and Directors in relation to the swamp lands, they shall be authorized to sell the same in whole or in part on such terms as they may deem best to secure the improvement thereof, by giving an equitable proportion of the lands improved to the parties completing the drainage at their own cost.

SECTION 5. Be it further enacted, That so much of section 27, chapter 66, of the revised code, as makes it obligatory on the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the several counties to elect, at least, five Superintendents of Common Schools in their counties, be hereby repealed and the Court (a majority of the Justices being present,) shall elect, at least, one Superintendent.

SECTION 6. Be it further enacted, That section 32, chapter 66, of the revised code, shall be amended so that the Justices of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions shall have power to levy and collect taxes at their discretion for the support and maintenance of Common Schools in their respective counties and for aid to subscription schools, which aid they are hereby empowered to give.

SECTION 7. Be it further enacted, That the school committee of the counties are hereby empowered, at their discretion, to grant aid to the extent they may be authorized by the Court, to subscription schools, the teachers of which have the qualifications prescribed for teachers of Common Schools, and to allow such Schools to be carried on in the school rooms of their Districts.

SECTION 8. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the school committee to take charge of, and help to repair the school rooms of their respective Districts, and they may allow the same to be occupied, if they deem it necessary to secure their preservation.

SECTION 9. Be it further enacted, That all laws inconsistent with this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 10. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this 10th day of March, A. D., 1866.

AN ACT MORE EFFECTUALLY TO SECURE THE MAINTENANCE OF BASTARD CHILDREN, AND THE PAYMENT OF FINES AND COSTS ON CONVICTION IN CRIMINAL CASES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all pleas of the State where a person may be fined or sentenced to pay costs, and in all cases arising under chapter twelve, of the Revised Code, entitled "Bastard Children," when the putative father shall be charged with costs or the payment of money for the support of a bastard child, and such person or putative father shall, by law, be subject to be committed to prison in default of paying the same, it shall be competent for the court to sentence such person or putative father to the house of correction for such time, not exceeding twelve months, as the court may deem proper; Provided, however, That such person or putative father, at his discretion, instead of being committed to prison or to the house of correction, may bind himself as an apprentice to any person whom he may select, for such time and at such price as the court may direct. The binding shall be by indenture in open court, and the price obtained shall be paid to the county trustee; and the person thus bound shall be treated and regarded as an apprentice in all matters, except education.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That this act shall go into effect on the first day of April eighteen hundred and sixty-six, at which time so much of the first section of chapter fifty-nine of the Revised Code, as allows persons committed for fine and costs of criminal prosecutions, to be discharged on taking the oath of insolvent debtors, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Ratified 2nd. day of March 1866.

AN ACT TO PREVENT ENTICING SERVANTS FROM FULFILLING THEIR CONTRACTS OR HARBORING THEM.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if, after the ratification of this act, any person shall entice, persuade and procure any servant by indenture, or any servant who shall have contracted in writing, to serve his employer, to unlawfully leave the service of his master or employer; or, if any person shall knowingly and unlawfully harbor and detain, in his own service, and from the service of his master or employer, any servant who shall unlawfully leave the service of such master or employer; then, in either case, such person and servant may be sued, singly or jointly, by the master, and on recovery he shall have judgment for the actual double value of the damages assessed.

Ratified 2nd day of March, 1866.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all parts in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly Sentinel.

All these papers are now regularly mailed to our subscribers. We have made arrangements by which they will be handsomely printed and regularly mailed, and will contain the latest news of the day. The Semi-Weekly and Weekly, we think, are capital papers of their class, and are printed in a style and filled with reading matter suited to our readers. Now is the time to renew subscriptions to the Daily and to subscribe to the Semi-Weekly and Weekly. The interesting and important events now transpiring, the meeting of the State Convention to come off in May, and other matters, make a newspaper an indispensable thing to every citizen.

Telegraphic Dispatches.

We are pleased to be able to state to our readers that, in a recent interview with Mr. Hicks, the Agent of the American Press Association, we consented to become a party to an arrangement which we expect soon to be carried into effect, by which the Sentinel will be furnished with the full daily dispatches furnished to the city press throughout the country. This arrangement will, we are assured, be far more satisfactory to us and to our readers than heretofore, and will be every way desirable in these unsettled and exciting times.

The Civil Rights Bill.

Our readers have already been advised of the passage of this bill by the U. S. Senate, over the veto of President Johnson. On yesterday, it is probable, the House passed the bill; if so, it is now a law of the land.

On to-morrow, we will lay the bill before our readers, and, in order to understand its full force and bearing, it will be well for each reader carefully to read it in connection with the President's Veto Message, which we published some days ago.

It is hardly possible to conceive to what lengths the execution of this law may be carried, under the latitudinous constructions now put upon the Constitution and the laws passed by the present Congress, by men whose minds are subordinated to and enthused with Radical sentiments and proclivities. The President in his Message presents, perhaps, the ultima Thule to which it may likely be carried. Yet, under the administration of a President, like Mr. Johnson, who holds to the Constitution as his sheet-anchor, and by the tenor of which all laws passed by Congress or the State Legislatures should be interpreted, much evil likely to grow out of it under other circumstances may be avoided.

We observe that there is much anxiety felt in the public mind as to the course the President will take in regard to it. We are not prepared to say precisely what course he will take. He has hitherto stood firmly upon the Constitution. He has shown a purpose and a will to adhere strictly to his oath to defend and support that instrument. Expecting him still to adhere to his previous course, we presume he will not hesitate to enforce it according to his best judgment, so long as it is a law. Firmly believing, as he does, that the law itself is unconstitutional, and vicious, and revolutionary in its character, he will, of course, favor the earliest legitimate effort to secure its repeal or obtain from the Supreme Court a decision as to its constitutionality.

The Southern people can regard the bill in no other light, than a direct impeachment of their declarations that they will do justice to the freedmen, and of the fidelity of our Judiciary and Courts—as a species of class legislation repugnant to the Constitution, and calculated to impress the Southern mind with the continued hostility and bitterness of the Radicals towards our people.

Vicious and unconstitutional as the law is, the Southern people will submit to the law, however grating it may be to their sense of honor and justice, because it is law, but will leave no stone unturned, in a legitimate way, to procure its repeal. We hope no Southern man has become so far demoralized, as to raise a mere factious opposition to law, because he thinks it unjust or unconstitutional. The hope of the South is in the Constitution and the law, and their faithful observance. Injustice and wrong may be borne under the shadow of law, and should be borne, rather than seek relief from it by a resort to illegal measures. We shall respect and obey law, however unjust, so long as it is the law.

The President—"Usurpation."

The Chicago Tribune calls for the impeachment of the President upon the ground that he is an usurper. The Radical journals, big and little, repeat the cry that "he is an usurper!"—The New York Herald, in the following series of brief paragraphs, disposes of that clamor:

"The Constitution provides that the President shall veto all bills of which he disapproves. Is President Johnson "a usurper" because he has vetoed two bills out of the forty-two presented to him by this Congress?

Politicans are so accustomed to corruption and rapacity that when a President declines power and patronage they call him "a usurper." They do not know a patriot when they see him, but the people do.

The Civil Rights bill would have enabled President Johnson to imprison all State judges who disagreed with him about the negro. Yet he vetoed the bill. Was that usurpation?

Thousands of new offices could have been created by the Freedmen's Bureau bill, and under it the President could have filled these offices with his favorites. He refused to take that immense power and patronage. Was that the act of "a usurper?"

Civil war is favorable to the projects of a usurper. President Johnson has just proclaimed peace. But the radicals accuse him of usurpation.

Agrandizement, both personal and political, is the motive of a usurper. By his vetoes President Johnson has voluntarily deprived himself of the golden opportunities for such agrandizement placed within his reach by Congress. If this be usurpation, make the most of it.

Supreme control, of the Southern States was placed in the hands of the President by the passage of the Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights bills. He vetoed the bills. And yet he is called "a usurper."

Violations of constitutional rights distinguish all usurpers. President Johnson obeys the constitution to the letter. Is this usurpation?

President Johnson has restored the right of habeas corpus. Does a "usurper" relinquish despotic powers in that way?

Congress opened the Treasury of the United States to President Johnson and authorized him to take out as much money as he liked and distribute it among his political friends. He declined to touch a penny of it. Is he a patriot or "a usurper?"

A usurper is a person who seizes power which does not legitimately belong to him. President Johnson sternly declines all such power, even when Congress urges him to take it. How, then, can the radicals call him "a usurper?"

Grant is "a usurper," according to the radicals, because he disbanded the greater part of the army and declared that the war was ended. President Johnson has only restored us to a peace policy, and if he be "a usurper," so is Grant.

SOUTHERN FAIR IN BALTIMORE.—The papers continue to contain the most glowing accounts of the great Fair in Baltimore, for the relief of the suffering and the destitute in the South.—We will endeavor to make room, to-morrow, for some additional description to the one we have heretofore given of the progress of this noble charity. In these dark days it looms up a monument of love and mercy—a beautiful illustration of the character of that sex, which is ever prominent in acts of sympathy and humanity.

METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE.—A telegraphic dispatch to the New York Herald states, that the General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, organized in New Orleans, on the 4th inst., Bishop Andrew presiding, assisted by Bishop Early, and Dr. T. O. Summers, as Secretary. The standing committees were composed of one member from each annual Conference. One hundred delegates had arrived, and others were looked for. A letter from Bishop Soule advises that the term South, in the name of the Church, be retained.

For the Sentinel.

Tableaux Vivants—"Stonewall Cemetery."

The ladies of Raleigh, have, at considerable trouble and expense, made preparations for presenting to the entertainment of the public, a series of Tableaux Vivants, to come of at the Chapel of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, on Thursday night next, the 12th inst.

When it is borne in mind to what purpose the proceeds are to be appropriated, it is to be hoped that every Christian-hearted man, woman and child in the community will take an interest in the proposed entertainment, so far, at least, as to aid and encourage it by their presence.

It is well known that there is no other locality in the country where so many bloody battles were fought during the late war, as the neighborhood of Winchester, Va. Owing to the circumstances which usually attend the interment of large numbers in time of war, thousands of Confederate dead were imperfectly buried—having been covered with a few inches of earth, which has been washed away by the floods of Winter, leaving their bones in many cases exposed and bleaching.

The ladies of Virginia have started the project of collecting these scattered remains of the gallant dead together, and re-interring them in a narrow space, to be surrounded by a permanent stone-wall, where they will be secure from outrage and exposure. Each Southern State is to have a separate plat of ground within the enclosure set apart to receive its special dead, with a place in the centre for the unknown, who can not be identified as to what State belonging.

It is to aid in defraying the expenses of this holy undertaking, that the proceeds of the proposed Tableaux are to be appropriated. It appeals to the Christian sensibilities of all persons, without involving any question as to the political issues of the struggle in which these heroes fell. They were our fellow countrymen. They fought and died in a cause which they regarded as that of their native land. Surely all persons must wish to accord to them Christian burial, and to pay that respect to their remains which brave and conscientious men deserve at the hands of the living.

With this appeal, the ladies of Raleigh rely on the generous patronage of the community.

Important Correspondence—Freedmen in the Civil Courts.

Having learned that a correspondence had taken place between Col. Whittlesey, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, and Hon. D. G. Fowle, Judge of the Superior Court, relative to the punishment, by whipping, according to the laws of the State, (affecting whites and blacks alike) of colored offenders convicted of larceny, we addressed a note to the latter gentleman, on yesterday, requesting a copy of the correspondence for publication. The Judge acceded to our solicitation, as the question involved is one of great importance, and we are accordingly enabled to present the correspondence in full.

Since the re opening of our Civil Courts, the course of adjudication has been, and will be, such as ought to convince every one that no discrimination will be made in the punishment of the guilty, on account of color. At Orange Court, white men and negroes alike, convicted of larceny, received the penalty adjudged by the statute. At Johnston Court, one white man, and no negro, as stated by Judge Fowle, was similarly punished for the same offence. At Wake Court, four freedmen were convicted of larceny; and two of them, failing to establish previous good character, were whipped. In the case of the other two, judgment was leniently suspended by the Judge, in order to afford them an opportunity of proving reputable conduct heretofore. And a negro woman, put on trial for arson, after a patient investigation and an impartial trial, was on Friday last fully acquitted.

But to the correspondence:

BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN AND ABANDONED LANDS,
Raleigh, N. C. April 4, 1866.

D. G. FOWLE, ESQ.,

Dear Sir:—I have learned, with pain, that, by decision of the County Court of this County, freedmen have been sentenced to be publicly whipped.

As the cases of white men charged with larceny and other crimes are for most part reserved for trial by military commission, and as no U. S. Court can inflict the punishment of whipping, it is manifest that unjust discrimination against the negro race will be the result. I therefore request that such penalties be suspended, until orders are issued by the Department Commander, or by Maj. Gen. Howard, to both of whom the matter has been referred.

Very Respectfully,
E. WHITTLESEY,
ASS'T COMM'R.

RALEIGH, April 4th, 1866.

COL. E. WHITTLESEY, Assistant Commissioner:

Sir:—Your communication of this date has just been received. The Court of which I am the presiding officer is the Superior Court of Law, and not the County Court. There has been "no unjust discrimination made against the negro race" in its adjudications. During the past week, in Johnston county, one white man (and no negro) was whipped, after being convicted by a jury of larceny. During this week, two negroes have been whipped for the same offence.

I have already consulted with the Commanding General of this Department, and have been informed by him, that whilst he does not approve of the punishment by whipping, which is inflicted by our laws, in larceny cases, yet that there will be no interference upon the part of the authorities of the United States Government, so long as the law is impartially administered by our Courts to whites and blacks alike. If white men, arrested by the Freedmen's Bureau, and held for trial before the Courts of Military Commission for larceny, are not as severely punished as negroes before the Courts of Justice in North Carolina, the injustice can be removed, by yielding to our Courts the exclusive jurisdiction in all such cases.

The Attorney General informs me that there are no more cases against freedmen for larceny upon our docket, to be tried this week, but if there were, I could not, at your request, stay the execution of the laws of North Carolina until I had been officially informed that the Commanding General of the Department of North Carolina had receded from the position which he has heretofore maintained.

Very Respectfully,
DANIEL G. FOWLE,
Judge Sup. Ct. of Law.

Raleigh, April 4th, 1866.

MAJ GENERAL RUGER, Commd'g Dep't N. C.

General:—I inclose for your inspection a copy of a communication, this day received from Col. E. Whittlesey, Assistant Commissioner, together with my reply.

You are aware of the disposition which has been shown by our Courts to avoid any conflict with the military authorities, and I have already explained to you the necessity which exists for the punishment of parties guilty of Larceny, and the great evil which would result to the country at large, from our Courts of Justice being rendered inefficient and powerless by the interference of the military authorities.

I am, General,
Very Respectfully Yours, &c.,
DAN'L G FOWLE,
Judge Sup. Ct. of Law.

Gen. Ruger receipted for this letter, but made no reply in writing.

BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN AND ABANDONED LANDS.
RALEIGH, N. C., April 5th, 1866.

D. G. FOWLE, Esq., Judge Superior Court of Law.

Sir:—Your communication of the 4th. inst. is received. By again reverting to my letter you will perceive that I made no complaint that any civil Court had made "unjust discrimination against the negro race in its adjudications." My statement was that under existing orders requiring certain white criminals to be tried by Military Commission and permitting certain colored criminals to be tried by civil Courts, the "result would be unjust discrimination &c." since no U. S. Court can punish by whipping.

I said nothing about the comparative severity of different modes of punishment.

You say further that "if white men arrested by the Freedmen's Bureau and held for trial before Courts of Military Commission for larceny are not as severely punished as negroes before the Courts of Justice in North Carolina, the injustice can be removed by yielding to our Courts the exclusive jurisdiction in all such cases."

I am happy to avail myself of the occasion which this remark furnishes to ask if, in your opinion, the civil Courts can receive the testimony of colored witnesses against white men accused of larceny or other crimes. If by the recent legislation negroes are restored to common law rights, and no distinction will hereafter be made on account of race or color, the chief difficulty in the way of "yielding the exclusive jurisdiction" is in my judgment removed.

Very respectfully
E. WHITTLESEY,
Assistant Commissioner.

RALEIGH, April 5th, 1866, 8 o'clock P. M.

COL. E. WHITTLESEY, Ass't Com'r.

Sir:—Yours of this date was not received until half an hour ago, because of my attendance upon Court until that hour.

If your note of the 4th. was not intended to institute a comparison as to the "severity of different modes of punishment," and to charge, that "unjust discrimination against the negro race will be the result," because, by the laws of North Carolina, "freedmen had been sentenced to be publicly whipped" by our Courts, whereas "no U. S. Court can inflict the punishment of whipping," and that "white men charged with larceny and other crimes are for the most part reserved for trial by Military Commission" and therefore not whipped, then I misapprehended your meaning.

You have not been charged with saying that unjust discriminations against the negro race have been made "by the adjudications of our Courts." I have merely called your attention to the fact that no such discriminations have been made, and cited you to the proof. Unless such discrimination is made, there is no reason why our Courts, administered according to the rules of the Common Law, so far as negroes are concerned, permitting them to introduce every witness white or black, who knows any thing important for the defence, should be excluded from trying offences committed by negroes, because "under existing orders certain white criminals" are "to be tried by Military Commission."

As you disclaim intending to complain, "that any civil Court had made unjust discrimination against the negro race in its adjudications," and as it is your duty to see that justice is done the negro race, the inference is, that experience has satisfied you that there has been no such discrimination.

I deem it right and proper to state, that our people, whom I believe to be sincerely desirous of discharging faithfully their duties to the United States Government, and whose character for honesty and impartiality in the jury box has almost passed into a proverb feel acutely the degradation to which they have been subjected, in being held amenable for criminal offences, to a tribunal, established in violation of the fundamental principles of Magna Charta, guaranteeing to every freeman a trial by jury, and awarded punishment, in many instances by men totally unversed in the laws, which they have assumed to administer. In regard to the question propounded as to the admission of negro evidence against white persons, I presume that you are not aware that a Judge is never expected to express an opionion in advance, upon a question that may soon be brought before him for judicial decision. I feel, however, justified in saying, that if the chief difficulty in the way of yielding the exclusive juisdiction in criminal matters to our Courts, consists in the apprehension that any unjust discrimination against the negro race would be made in regard to the right to testify, such apprehension ought to be removed, by the recent act to which you refer, in as much as by sec. 9th it is declared, that whenever matters relating to freedmen shall be fully committed to the Courts of this State, "That persons of color, not otherwise incompetent, shall be capable of bearing evidence in all controversies at law and in equity, where the rights of persons or property of persons of color shall be put in issue and would be concluded by the judgment or decree of Court; and also in pleas of the State where the violence, fraud or injury alleged shall be charged to have been done by or to persons of color.—In all other civil and criminal cases such evidence shall be deemed inadmissible unless by consent of the parties to the record."

As this provision extends to negroes "all common law rights" in every possible contingency in which their rights of person or property shall be put in issue, I trust that your influence will be exerted for the purpose of putting an end to that unusual and irritating tribunal, which has been established for the trial of freemen, and yet entirely ignores that foundation stone of Anglo-Saxon Liberty, to wit: Trial by Jury, and which our people believe not unfrequently makes unjust discrimination against the white race and in favor of the negro.

If not permiting negroes to testify in cases affecting white persons alone, where the parties interested refuse to consent to their being admitted as witnesses, is to be considered a reason for interference with the administration of the Laws of North Carolina, all right-minded citizens will hail with delight the coming of that hour, in which a tribunal, thus perpetuated, shall be numbered with the things that were.

Very respectfully,
DANIEL G. FOWLE,
Judge Sup. Ct. of Law.

BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN AND ABANDONED LANDS,
RALEIGH, N. C., April 7, 1866.

D. G. FOWLE, ESQ.,
Judge Sup. Court of law,

Sir:—Your communication of the 5th inst., was received last evening. I regret that it is not consistent with your duty to express an opinion upon the question propounded in my note as to the admission of negro testimony against white persons, for, were the uncertainty on this point removed, I could suggest to the Commissioner of this Bureau, such changes in the orders under which we now act, as might possibly lead to satisfactory settlement of the question of jurisdiction. I trust an occasion may soon be given for a judicial decision which will leave no doubt as to the status of the negro.

It does not become me to enter into any discussion of the character of military tribunals established by the United States Government, as I am no more responsible for their existence than I am for the condition of the country where their jurisdiction has been deemed necessary.

Thanking you for your patience and courtesy, and sorry to have given you so much trouble.

I remain,
Yours, very respectfully,
E. WHITTLESEY,
Assistant Commissioner.

The Freedmen.

The Salisbury Old North State states that Col. Cilley, of the Freedmen's Bureau at that place, addressed the colored people last week, in which he explained to them the new law of marriage by which they are hereafter to be governed,—the recent proclamation of the President, restoring the writ of habeas corpus, and informed them that hereafter their cases would be under the jurisdiction of the State Courts.—Col. Cilley furthermore expressed the opinion that our Courts would do them full justice.—We are glad to record the admission, and believe that the future will fully sustain Col. Cilley's opinion.

The Defeat of the Veto.

We extract from the Intelligencer the following proceedings in the Senate of the United States, immediately preceding the final action of that body upon the President's veto of the Civil Rights Bill:

Mr. Doolittle then took the floor and discussed the different plans of reconstruction. The plan of President Johnson was substantially the same as that adopted by President Lincoln, and which had the approval of his entire Cabinet, including the present Chief Justice.

Mr. Sumner said that the Chief Justice had written a letter to Mr. Lincoln, which he received the day before his death, and in which this statement was set right.

Mr. Doolittle said he had not been aware of any statement to the contrary. The plan of Mr. Lincoln had received the sanction of a Republican Senate this month a year ago. When Mr. Johnson came into office he found this plan in progress, and endeavored to carry it out.—Everything was moving smoothly, when gentlemen step in and assume to obstruct it in the name of the great Union party. The course of the President was sustained at length by Mr. D. If this spirit of recrimination was to prevail, if the President and those who support him are to be assailed as traitors, there was no hope of sustaining the unity of the great Union party. A spirit of concession should prevail. In regard to this bill, he had not been present when the vote was taken, and he had not examined it very carefully until his attention had been called to it by speeches in the other House, and the message of the President, and now, after carefully examining its provisions, he could not support it.

He had received a telegram, which he had no doubt was correct, although he had not received the resolutions, that the Legislature of Wisconsin had instructed him to vote for this bill, but he had stated the objections to it as viewed from his standpoint, and he could not do it. He knew what the general result of disregarding instructions was. It may end my political life. So be it. Mr. President, this is the only political office I ever held, and I have no wish to hold it one hour longer than I can act according to my own conscience and dictates of duty. I say this with no disrepect to the honorable gentlemen who passed these resolutions.—They do not see things as I see them.

Mr. D. read from letters to prove that the public sentiment of the Southern States had been much misrepresented. Undoubtedly there were abuses there, but the people of the South had certainly made as much progress as could be expected. If this bill was not passed he hoped that one could be framed that would meet the views of all, and not infringe in any way upon the Constitution.

Mr. Davis addressed the Senate in opposition to the bill. He said he would proceed somewhat like an October rain, with deliberation and very much at his leisure.

Mr. Saulsbury said he was convinced now, more than ever, that war was disunion. He and those with whom he acted had been charged as disunionists by others, and he now lived to see the day when those who had charged this against him were not only disunionists but revolutionists, and the bleeding, mangled body of the Constitution lay in their pathway.—In his judgment, the passage of this act was the inauguration of revolution.—It is well that the American people should take warning and set their house in order. It is impossible that the people will submit to it. Heaven knows we have had enough of bloodshed, enough of mourning in every household. There are too many new made graves for any one to wish to see more. Attempt to execute this bill within the limits of any State of the Union, and, in my judgment, it will plunge the country into another war.

Mr. McDougall said the bill was fraught with the most mischievous consequences.

The chair then put the question, Shall the bill pass, the President's objections to the contrary notwithstanding? which resulted as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Brown, Chandler, Clark, Conness, Cragin, Creswell, Edmonds, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane, of Indiana, Morgan, Morrill, Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Willey, Williams, Wilson and Yates—33.

NAYS—Messrs. Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Doolittle, Guthrie, Hendricks, Johnson, Lane, of Kansas, McDougall, Nesmith, Norton, Riddle, Salisbury, Van Winkle and Wright—15.

When Mr. Morgan's name was called, and he voted aye, a perfect storm of applause arose from the galleries, and many on the floor shook him warmly by the hand.

The Chair announced that the bill having the requisite constitutional majority of two-thirds, it had passed the Senate.

Immediately upon the announcement of the result the applause was renewed in the galleries, and cheers and hurrahs were uttered, and it was sometime before order could be restored.

Radical Blasphemy.

In the Senate, on Thursday last, speaking upon a motion to adjourn, Wade, of Ohio, insisted upon taking an immediate vote upon the President's veto, and stated, in effect, that the Almighty had made certain conservative Senators ill in order to afford the radicals an opportunity to override the veto!

Mr. McDougall administered a most effective rebuke to the Radical blasphemer, in the course of which he said:

"Mr. President, the Senator from Ohio is in the habit of appealing to his God in vindication of his judgment and conduct. It is a common thing for him to do so; but in view of the present demonstration, it may well be asked, who and what is his God? * * *

"The followers of Ahriman always appealed to the same spirit manifested by the Senator from Ohio. Death is to be one of his angels now, to redeem the Constitution and the laws, and to establish liberty. Sickness, suffering, evil are to be his angels, and he thanks the Almighty, HIS ALMIGHTY, that sickness, danger, and evil are about. It may be a good God for him in this world; but if there is any truth in what we learn about the orders of religion in the Christian world, his faith will not help him when he shall ascend up and ask entrance at the crystal doors." * * * *

"It is a strange thing, an exceedingly strange thing, that when a few Senators in the city of Washington, ill at their houses, give assurance that they can be present to act upon a great public question on the day following, that we should hear a piece of declamation, the Senator appealing to his God, and saying with an "Io triumphe" air, well or ill, God has made them ill. Sir, the God of Desolation, the God of Darkness, the God of Evil is his God. I never expected to hear such objections raised among honorable men. I never expected to hear such things in this hall, and I rose simply to say that such sentiments were to be condemned and must receive my condemnation now and here, and if it amounts to a rebuke, I trust it may be a rebuke."

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—T. J. Holt, Road Master R. & G. R. R. Co., will sell a number of mules, wagons, &c., belonging to the Company, in Warrenton, on the 17th inst.

O. G. Parsley & Co., of Wilmington, announce a large importation of various grades of coffee, direct from Rio Janeiro.

TABLEAUX VIVANTS.—It will be seen, by reference to the Card in another column, that a portion of the ladies of this City contemplate giving an exhibition of Tableaux vivants, on Thursday evening next, at the Chapel of the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind,—the proceeds to be appropriated to the STONEWALL CEMETERY at Winchester, Va.

We think that we may safely promise, from what we know of the fair projectors, to all who may attend this exhibition, an evening of no ordinary æsthetic enjoyment,—in other words, that they will receive more than an equivalent for their money in rational and refined entertainment. Independently, however, of this consideration, the humane and patriotic object which the ladies, with their characteristic disposition to take the lead in all good and virtuous deeds, have in view, should, and doubtless will, commend their plan to all whose hearts are in the right place. Let us, of the Capital of North Carolina,—many of whose sons are numbered with the heroic dead that sleep beneath the battle sod around Winchester,—send such a substantial response to the touching appeal of the daughters of the Valley, as will convince them of our appreciation of their pious undertaking, and as will prove that we are not unmindful of the ashes of our own gallant, uncoffined dead.

We shall have it in our power, in another issue, to give some particulars as to the intrinsic merits of the proposed exhibition.

CASE OF MAJOR GEN.—The Military Commission resumed its sittings on yesterday. We learn that the Counsel for the defence raised a question as to the jurisdiction of the Court growing out of its status as affected by the President's proclamation. The question was ably argued and the decision of the Court in the premises will be rendered to-day.

BURGLARY.—The Clothing Store of Messrs. Harding & Andrews, on Fayetteville Street, was entered on Sunday night, and several articles abstracted. We are glad to hear that their loss is inconsiderable.

RALEIGH GAS CO.—A meeting of the Stockholders of this Company was held on Saturday. The following gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year, viz: Messrs. Geo. W. Mordecai, D. G. Fowle, T. D. Hogg and C. B. Root. At a subsequent meeting of the Board C. B. Root was elected President, and W. E. Anderson Secretary and Treasurer. We learn that, on the first of May, the lessees, Messrs. Waterhouse & Bowes, will turn over the works to the Stockholders, and that they will, thereafter, be carried on under their auspices.

"WINTER LINGERING," &c.—We had quite a fall of snow in this vicinity, on Sunday night. The previous heavy rains, however, prevented its lying. Three days since light Summer clothing was in vogue. To-day, good fires are indispensable.

BURGLARS ARRESTED.—Three characters have been arrested in Charlotte upon suspicion of being connected with recent burglaries in this city, Newbern and Greensboro. They had in their possession a carpet bag, containing twenty-five silver watches, and about a peck of assorted jewelry, spoons, &c. They give their names as Jno. Rogers, of Philadelphia, Geo. Williams, of Charleston, and Geo. Simpson, of Liverpool. Beyond doubt these are the parties who recently robbed the store of our friend, Jno. C. Palmer, in this city.

RT. REV. BISHOP ATKINSON.—We regret to learn that this eminent divine was taken suddenly ill in Wilmington, on the 5th. At last accounts he was much better, though he will be temporarily prevented from filling his appointments.

BOLD ROBBERY BY NEGROES.—We learn, from the Newbern Times, that on Thursday last, about a dozen negroes went to the house of Mr. D. V. Dickinson, on Broadfoot Creek, in Craven, and literally "went through" his place.—They placed a guard over Mr. Dickinson and made his wife conduct them through the premises to show where everything portable was placed. They took off $70 in greenbacks, $30 or $40 in specie, and $100 in State money; besides dresses, all his bacon, pork, chickens, turkeys, household furniture, and a double barreled gun. The stolen property was placed in boats, and they started in the direction of Newbern.

FRUIT CROP.—The Winston Sentinel says that the fruit crop in that section looks well, with the exception of the peaches. Apples, pears, damsons, cherries have not been injured in the slightest, and there is a prospect for an abundant yield. The peaches have been slightly touched in some vicinities, but there is reason to hope the crop will be sufficient for all domestic purposes. This is the more gratifying, as our exchanges from various parts of the country are bewailing the injury done to the fruit, and in the North they are "singing the dirge of the peach crop."

MORE THEFTS—The Tarboro' Southerner mentions several robberies in that county—especially one of horses and mules, from J. J. Bridgers, Esq. The thieves were pursued and arrested two miles below Goldsboro, and the animals recovered. They were stolen, it seems, by two freedmen recently imported from "furlin parts" by Mr. Bridgers. In this connection, the Southerner properly suggests that it is bad policy to import freedmen from distant parts, and place them upon plantations in the country, without full and complete evidence of their previous good characters.

GENERAL NEWS.

A number of Virginians called upon the President on Friday last, to give assurance that the people of Virginia would give their sincere and cordial support to his policy. The President expressed his gratification to be assured that his public course was approved by the people, and that it would cheer him in the path of duty he was trying to tread.

Lieutenant General Grant gave a splendid reception at his residence in Washington on the 6th., which was attended by President Johnson, Thad. Stevens, the French Minister, Madame Juarez, Minister Romeo, Alexander H. Stephens and many members of Congress and ladies in the capital.

Quite a commotion arose in South Carolina on the receipt of the President's Peace Proclamation, on account of the inadvertent omission of the name of that State. All right, Palmetto.

Previously to the war a purchase of fifty hogsheads of bacon, by a firm in Augusta, Georgia, of Childs & Gayner, of Baltimore, left a balance of twelve hundred dollars due the latter, which sum the merchants in Augusta have recently expressed a desire to remit to Childs & Gayner, in gold.

This is another among the many honorable instances showing the desire of Southern debtors to pay the full amount of their indebtedness under contracts made before the outbreak of the war.

The negroes who are asking for negro suffrage ought to be ashamed of themselves till they convert the kingdom of Liberia to white suffrage, which is now denied.

Horace Maynard has expressed the opinion that public sentiment in Tennessee and North Carolina is more inclined to justice than in Connecticut and Pennsylvania.

There was never so much crime in Vermont as now, and the local papers attribute it to liquor, without regard to the "hallowing influences of camp life." One county has fifteen criminals, who will be sent to the State Prison.

Harvey Mansfield, of Bristol, Vt., while filing a saw with his gloves on, stopped to rub his eyes, and so filled them with the steel filings that had accumulated upon his gloves that it is feared he will entirely lose his sight.

The Chicago "Post" denies the extensively circulated report, to the effect that labor was in great demand in the West. It says that hundreds of poor laborers have been sent on the wild-goose chases to the Upper Missouri from St. Louis and Chicago. The intelligence offices are at the bottom of the knavery.

A Richmond paper states that Castle Thunder is being thoroughly repaired, preparatory to being turned into a "grand mercantile amphitheatre"—whatever that may be.

The Hon. Henry A. Wise, whose parole confined him to one of the military departments of Virginia, has been given a permit by General Grant, to visit any part of the United States.

The Texas State Convention has closed its session and sent five members to convey the results of their deliberations to Washington.

The Chicago Tribune demands the impeachment of President Johnson for denouncing Union members of Congress and for receiving bribes for pardons! There are other things besides vaulting ambition which "overleap themselves."

Congress is about deciding that hereafter the head of no living man shall be printed on U. S. currency.

It is understood that this will not exclude Forney.

1866. SPRING TRADE. 1866.

IN OPENING THE
SPRING TRADE,

I would return my most grateful thanks to the citizens of Petersburg and the surrounding country for the very liberal patronage extended the past season, and hope to merit its further continuance by holding out still further inducements.

My present facilities are beyond doubt unequalled, and no effort will be spared to place before our patrons Goods that the present market value will admit of, and in many instances much below, as we are constantly represented at the large auction sales, where goods are frequently sold much less than cost of importation. These, with

Many Other Available Facilities,

I pledge myself to use to the best interest of our customers.

The stock is now much larger and better assorted than at any time previous, having added a complete assortment of

HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS,

Among them the most elegant
Satin Damask,
Lace and Muslin Curtains,
Wine Cloths,
Piano and Table Covers,
Stair Linen,
Linen Druggets,
Table Linen,
Napkins, Doilies,
Towels, Crash

—ALSO—

WHITE GOODS,

Of which I have always kept a good stock, is now replete with everything the market affords. Besides, a very handsome stock of Needlework,
Edgings, Insertings,
Laces and Embroideries.

THE STOCK OF
LADIES' DRESS GOODS,
Must be seen to be appreciated. I therefore invite all to an inspection, and in catering so well for the ladies, I would assure the gentlemen they have not been forgotten. The assortment of Cloths,
Cassimeres,
—AND—
Furnishing Goods Generally,
Is complete, and it is hoped those in want of goods of this class will not fail to give us a call.

To the Merchants of Virginia and North Carolina,

who have so liberally patronized us the past season, I return my most grateful thanks, and solicit an early call, assuring them they will find our goods at as low prices as any house North or South.

THOMAS SMITH,
25 Sycamore Street,

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures those disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract o Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

RALEIGH, 1866.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Etna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. In case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assets of $2,500,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $500, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pinchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 8 819 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15, 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527,805 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155,244 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

for the transaction of a Shipping and General

Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandize, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.

A Remarkable Case.

DISEASE IN WHICH THE LUNGS AND THROAT ARE INVOLVED.—Mrs. Phebe Perkinson, Petersburg, Va., (Aug. 26, 1865,) says: "I hereby certify, that two years ago last June, I was afflicted with a disease commonly called the Breast Complaint, the pain and weakness in the breast continued to increase so that I could not bear my clothes fastened on me for the space of two years. I found great difficulty in breathing; a general debility prevailed over my whole system—so much so, that I could not walk up the steps without drawing myself up by the banister; had a continued hacking cough, which distressed me greatly, four times during my illness had Hemorrhage of the Lungs. All medical treatment failed to afford me relief; it was the opinion of my friends that I must die with the consumption; I was advised to use the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS; after using three boxes, strictly according to directions, I find myself in the enjoyment of perfect health; I have a good appetite, have become as flashy as I ever was, sleep sound and pleasant, and can perform any duty with as much strength and vigor as I ever did. They certainly have acted like a perfect charm on me."

☞ For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 per dozen. Address,
